Oates Tells Of Plans for Police Week

Promotion of "National Police Week" with public observances has been listed as one of the principal goals for the Los Angeles Chapter of the Police Officers Research Assn. of California by its new president, Officer Charles B. Oates of the Torrance Police Department.

Plans to promote the national observance next May were announced by Oates following his election to succeed Capt. John McDonald of the Ventura Sheriff's Office as head of the four-county organization of peace officers.

Oates, a member of the state board of PORAC for two years, served the past year as chairman of the group's public relations committee. He also is president of the Torrance Police Officers' Assn.

First meeting of the Southland PORAC chapter under Oates is scheduled for Dec. 9 in Torrance, its president said.

Craftsmen Exhibit at Marymount

New work in ceramics, enamels, glass, jewelry, sculpture and weaving will be unveiled when the 10 artist craftsmen stage their second annual exhibit and sale at Marymount College from Nov. 24 to Dec. 13.

Participating in the three-week showing in the library gallery will be Sylvia Cosoleto, Laya Brostoff, Jackie Carl, Gerald Citrin, Louisa Gordon, Lillian Griswold, Kay Kinney, Zaven Zee Sipantzi, Cliff Stewart and Tony Villis.

Miss Cosoleto, chairman of the group, has conducted her own workshop in enamels, ceramics, glass and jewelry since 1950 and made over 300 ceramic pieces for the film "The Ten Commandments," along with other motion picture and television commitments.

MISS BROSTOFF of Hollywood is a designer-craftsman in handwoven textiles and tapestries, Jackie Carl specializes in pottery, and Gerald Citrin of Hollywood is a sculptor and painter.

Louisa Gordon, born and educated in Vienna, brings a continental flair to her work in enameling. Lillian Griswold of Los Angeles is also an enamelist and Kay Kinney, author of "Glass Craft," heads her own ceramic factory in Laguna Beach, where she is program chairman of the Laguna Artists Guild.

Zaven Zee Sipantzi of North Hollywood has participated in numerous West Coast exhibits including the Los Angeles Museum of Art with his handwrought jewelry. Cliff Stewart of Los Angeles has his own studio as a potter and sculptor, as does Tony Villis of Studio City.

A RECEPTION from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 24, will open the activity, with the 10 artist craftsmen scheduled to be present to greet visitors.

There is no admission charge for the exhibit, and visiting hours are from noon to 5 p.m. daily.

Banquet Slated

Miss Clyde Hougham of Argentina will be guest speaker at the initiation ceremony to be held by Pi Lambda Theta, national honor and professional association for women in education at Long Beach State College. The banquet will be held Friday at the Elks' Club, 4101 E. Willow St., at 6:30 p.m.
